BUILDING THE BODY OF THE CHRIST: In the third session in this series held on Thursday evening, Fr Francis asked us to reflect on practical ways of building up the body of Christ in our context and in our community.

And so, he took us back to scripture, to look at how Jesus lay the foundation in his own ministry. And we found, Jesus called people to repentance and to accepting the Good News (Mark1:15); he appointed twelve people to help him minister to the people (Matt 10:1-15, Mar 6:8-11, Luke 9:2-5 cf. Luke 10:1-20). Jesus encouraged them to form communities of disciples ('where two or three gather in my name' . . . Matt 18:20). The community is to be formed around his Word ('if you make my Word your home, then you are my disciples . . . John 8:31) Jesus then ministered to the needs of the people - the hungry were fed (John 6:1-14): the sick were healed (Luke 4:38-41): the demon possessed were liberated (Luke 4:31-37): the bereaved were comforted (John 11:17-37): the dead raised to life (John 11:38-44, Luke 7:11-17): the downtrodden were set free (John 8:1-11): and the word of God was preached to everyone (Luke 6:27-19).

Jesus is people centred.

Jesus wanted his disciples to continue and build on what they already had when he sent them out "as you go, proclaim the good news, 'the kingdom of God has come near'. Cure the sick, raise the dead, cleanse the lepers, cast out demons..." (Matt 10:7-8)

Jesus' great concern is the people of God. And same with the early church.

- * to build up the body of Christ is to build up the community of believers.
- * is to build up a people who care for one another; interested in the well-being of the other; who value one another; and are prepared to form a community with one another.
- * is to build up a community that has Jesus at the centre of its existence.
- * is to build up a community whose love for God and for one another draws from the love of Christ in the Spirit.

Some of the issues we encounter in our endeavours to Build the Body of Christ are that our major community assembly is mostly on Sundays: not many wait around after Mass, and those who do usually speak with the same people: people rush away for different reasons, so no connection is made with each other: not enough time for biblical expositions or for theological and doctrinal discussions: not enough time to get to know others, not even for a cuppa.

The last evening in this series will be held in the Mary MacKillop Hall on Friday October 26 at 7:00pm. A reflection for us all to consider between now and then is "Our co-responsibility in building the Body of Christ".

Hopefully all in our Parish will attend on Friday evening, it would be great if we can make connections with each other. Please bring a plate of supper to share.

Fr Francis

STEWARDSHIP (Planned Giving) MID

PROGRAM REVIEW:

Our current Stewardship Program is currently half way through its timeline. The Stewardship Program is an important means of support for St. Michael's Parish, it helps provide the core funding commitment for the running of the daily activities of our parish, upkeep of facilities and pastoral programs. We are currently undertaking a review of where we are at, and over the next two weekends you will hear more about our current state/future plans and have the opportunity to consider your contribution. I would like to personally thank you all, for all you have done for our wonderful parish to date, God Bless you! - Father Francis.

PLANNED GIVING ENVELOPES:

Receipts for Planned Giving for June 01 to September 30 2018 are now available to be collected. Please take your receipt home. This will greatly assist us to keep our postage bill down, thank you.

FINANCE MATTERS:

"For the Son of Man did not come to be served, but to serve and to give his life as a ransom for many." MARK 10:45

If you held a mirror up to your life, would it reflect God's love and mercy? If you are struggling with this, try changing your attitude from "I want more" to "thank you God for everything you have given me, I have enough to share". This change in perspective will bring you joy through service to others.

PARISH FINANCE MATTERS:

If you wish to have information about our Planned Giving programme please contact the Parish Office.

in the shadow of your wings protect me.*

First Reading Is 53:10-11

A reading from the prophet Isaiah

If he offers his life in atonement, he shall see his heirs, and have long life.

The Lord has been pleased to crush his servant with suffering.

If he offers his life in atonement,
he shall see his heirs, he shall have a long life
and through him what the Lord wishes will be done.

His soul's anguish over
he shall see the light and be content.

By his sufferings shall my servant justify many,
taking their faults on himself.

Responsorial Psalm Ps 32:4-5. 18-20. 22. R. v.22

(R.) Lord, let your mercy be on us, as we place our trust in you.

1. The word of the Lord is faithful and all his works to be trusted.
The Lord loves justice and right and fills the earth with his love. (R.)
2. The Lord looks on those who revere him, on those who hope in his love.
to rescue their souls from death,
to keep them alive in famine. (R.)
3. Our soul is waiting for the Lord.
The Lord is our help and our shield.
May your love be upon us, O Lord,
as we place all our hope in you. (R.)

Second Reading Heb 4: 14-16

A reading from the letter to the Hebrews

Let us be confident in approaching the throne of grace.

Since in Jesus, the Son of God, we have the supreme high priest who has gone through to the highest heaven, we must never let go of the faith that we have professed. For it is not as if we had a high priest who was incapable of feeling our weaknesses with us; but we have one who has been tempted in every way that we are, though he is without sin. Let us be confident, then, in approaching the throne of grace, that we shall have mercy from him and find grace when we are in need of help.

Gospel Acclamation Mt 5:3

Alleluia, alleluia!

*The Son of Man came to serve
and to give his life as a ransom for all.
Alleluia!*

Gospel Mk 10: 35-45

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Mark

The Son of Man came to give his life as a ransom for all.

James and John, the sons of Zebedee, approached Jesus. 'Master,' they said to him, 'we want you to do us a favour.' He said to them, 'What is it you want me to do for you?' They said to him, 'Allow us to sit one at your right hand and the other at your left in your glory.' 'You do not know what you are asking' Jesus said to them. 'Can you drink the cup that I must drink, or be baptised with the baptism with which I must be baptised?' They replied, 'We can.' Jesus said to them,
'The cup that I must drink you shall drink, and with the baptism with which I must be baptised you shall be baptised, but as for seats at my right hand or my left, these are not mine to grant; they belong to those to whom they have been allotted.'

When the other ten heard this they began to feel indignant with James and John, so Jesus called them to him and said to them: 'You know that among the pagans their so-called rulers lord it over them, and their great men make their authority felt. This is not to happen among you. No; anyone who wants to become great among you must be your servant, and anyone who wants to be first among you must be slave to all. For the Son of Man himself did not come to be served but to serve, and to give his life as a ransom for many.'

Next week's Readings ~ October 28
