Farewell Monsignor John Patrick Allman PE RIP

It is with great sadness that we announce the passing of Monsignor John Allman early Friday morning. We give thanks for the life of Mons Allman as he gave so much to our Diocese, particularly here at St Michael's Parish. He was born and raised in Denison via Heyfield, and ordained in Sale in 1951. He was a proud Gippslander, the un-official Bishop of Glengarry, who even after his official retirement, continued to offer Mass at St Columbkille's, and then O'Mara House. He will be remembered every time we enjoy the life of Jesus through the windows in our Church.

While he always introduced himself as Father, the name "Mons" is legend among the thousands of Catholics who encountered his welcoming ministry and found in him a priest after the heart of the Good Shepherd himself. His extraordinary ability to connect with people has meant that Catholic and non-Catholic alike found a pastoral friend: The "Mons" has held a special place in the homes and hearts of so many. Many will remember his care at the time of family grief and the deep connection he forged in the "valley darkness" and as he led them safely to "pastures green." The hundreds of couples he accompanied to their marriage vows and the joys which they would celebrate. Thousands of families will recall Mons Allman at Sacraments of Initiation. Others will recall a kindly confessor at critical moments of conversion. Others still will recall his proclamation of the Word and the thousands of Masses which he celebrated uniting his priesthood to Christ. We mourn the loss of this great priest of Sale. We rejoice that he has enjoyed such a long and wonderful life. We are grateful for the profound witness in service of Jesus Christ and his deep devotion to Our Lady of Perpetual Help through whom he dedicated his life.

His last Mass was celebrated on Saturday afternoon at his bedside at O'Mara House. He whispered every prayer. He gazed upon the consecrated host and chalice with eyes as though fixed on heaven: A moment when time and eternity were united. He said he knew Jesus was suffering with him and he was offering his suffering to the Lord. He blessed his bishop, clergy, people of Sale invoking the intercession of Our Lady. There was nothing more to do other than await the great victory he had preached through his words and actions the promise of eternal life. His life and his death will be remembered in the stories which will be told and as his name falls gently from our lips. While our hearts are saddened today, we can be sure in faith that our brother John will be welcomed by the angels into paradise. We pray he now enjoys the rewards of his faithful life in the eternal presence of God to whom he dedicated his life, and in the presence of Our Lady of Perpetual Help, upon whose intercession he relied and in whose model of discipleship he lived.

May he rest in peace and rise in glory.

Bishop Greg Bennet

WORDS FROM MONS ALLMAN:

To celebrate his 70 years of priesthood in the Diocese of Sale:

It is my privilege to express "thanks" to many during these 70 years for the support received and needed.

I have always had a fond devotion to our Lady, especially under the title of Perpetual Help. I have prayed for her help that I would become a priest and my devotion with time has grown stronger.

I also thank the parishioners of our diocese for their inspiration and example which has encouraged me. I have gladly been a priest under eight Bishops since my ordination by Bishop Ryan. He has been followed by Bishop Lyons, Bishop Fox, Bishop D'Arcy, Bishop Coffey, Bishop Prowse, Bishop O'Regan and Bishop Bennet – I have always appreciated their kindness and leadership as an inspiration for me and parishioners who have been united as the Church of Sale. Each parish has had a variety of occasions when unity and strength has been restored after disappointment or hurt visited.

I do wish to thank especially my family who have always supported me in my vocation and shown their love and generosity with personal sacrifice.

Generosity and gratitude are strong Christian virtues

Please pray – May his life and sacrifice as a priest be pleasing to Almighty God: all wonderful, merciful and powerful.

BLESSING OF OUR ADVENT WREATH:

Lord our God, we praise you for your Son, Jesus Christ: he is Emmanuel, the hope of the peoples, he is the wisdom that teaches and guides us, he is the Saviour of every nation.

Lord God, let your blessing come upon us as we light the candles of this wreath.

May the wreath and its light be a sign of Christ's promise to bring us salvation. May he come quickly and not delay. We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen

THANK YOU:

I would like to express my heartfelt gratitude to the many parishioners and parish groups for the well wishes, flowers and gifts which were so generously given to me as I begin the new adventure in my life, retirement.

I have thoroughly enjoyed my seven years in the parish office; it's been both a privilege and an honour to work for the families of our parish. I now look forward to again being a parishioner and volunteer in our wonderful parish.

My sincere thanks to Fr Bernard, Fr Francis, Fr James, Fr Babu, Fr Prasanna, Fr Saji, Fr Ajin and Deacon Tony, Sr Doreen, Jenifer Hanratty, Catherine Hill and our many group leaders for all their generous support and help. I am delighted knowing that Cath Hill has taken on the Parish Secretary role - our parish is in good hands. Bev O'Brien

SYNOD 2021-2023 LET'S WALK TOGETHER:

Our Speaking Out: Everyone is invited to speak boldly and courageously in truth and love. Are we as Catholics good at saying publicly what is important to us? If not, why not? Have your say Written submissions can also be dropped into the Parish Office which can be included as part of the collective Parish response. In the coming months we will arrange Parish sessions to meet and discuss the themes of the Synod together, our first 'coffee conversations' will be held this weekend in the Mary MacKillop Room, we warmly invite all Parishioners to attend. In the meantime, feel free to gather with other parishioners, friends and family and share your ideas on communion within the Catholic Church.

Coffee Conversations- How do Catholics 'Journey Together'? How might we do it better?

Before Mass Dec 11 & 12: 4pm in the Mary MacKillop Room
After Mass Dec 16: 10am in the Mary MacKillop Room

QUOTE OF THE DAY:

Pope Francis on Synodality

"The "art of encounter," said Francis, is marked by listening and seeking to understand the other. "Every encounter, as we know, calls for openness, courage and a willingness to let ourselves be challenged by the presence and the stories of others."

(Pope Francis, Homily for the Launch of the Synod 2021-2023, 10 October 2021.)

STEWARDSHIP MATTERS

"Have no anxiety at all, but in everything, by prayer and petition, with thanksgiving, make your requests known to God." PHILIPPIANS 4:6

St. Paul reminds us that our God is an abundant God, the ultimate giver of gifts. He promises to give us all that we need. When we trust that God will take care of us, it is easier for us to share what we have been given.

Entrance Antiphon Phil 4:4-5

*Rejoice in the Lord always; again I say, rejoice.
Indeed, the Lord is near.*

First Reading Zephaniah 3:14-18

A reading from the prophet Zephaniah
With gladness the Lord will rejoice over you.

Shout for joy, daughter of Zion, Israel, shout aloud!
Rejoice, exult with all your heart, daughter of Jerusalem!

The Lord has repealed your sentence; he has driven your enemies away.

The Lord, the king of Israel, is in your midst;
you have no more evil to fear.

When that day comes, word will come to Jerusalem:
Zion, have no fear, do not let your hands fall limp.

The Lord your God is in your midst, a victorious warrior.

He will exult with joy over you, he will renew you by his love; he will dance with shouts of joy for you as on a day of festival.

Responsorial Psalm Is 12:2-6 Rv6

(R.) Cry out with joy and gladness: for among you is the great and Holy One of Israel.

1. Truly, God is my salvation,
I trust, I shall not fear.
For the Lord is my strength, my song,
he became my saviour.
With joy you will draw water from the wells of salvation. (R.)
2. Give thanks to the Lord, give praise to his name!
Make his mighty deeds known to the peoples!
Declare the greatness of his name. (R.)
3. Sing a psalm to the Lord for he has done glorious deeds, make them known to all the earth!
People of Zion, sing and shout for joy for great in your midst is the Holy One of Israel. (R.)

Second Reading Philippians 4:4-7

A reading from the letter of St Paul to the Philippians
The Lord is near.

I want you to be happy, always happy in the Lord; I repeat, what I want is your happiness. Let your tolerance be evident to everyone: the Lord is very near. There is no need to worry; but if there is anything you need, pray for it, asking God for it with prayer and thanksgiving, and that peace of God, which is so much greater than we can understand, will guard your hearts and your thoughts, in Christ Jesus.

Gospel Acclamation Isaiah 61:1 (Luke 4:18)

*Alleluia, alleluia!
The Spirit of the Lord is upon me;
he sent me to bring Good News to the poor.
Alleluia!*

Gospel Luke 3:10-18

A reading from the holy Gospel according to Luke
What, then, must we do?

When all the people asked John, 'What must we do?'
he answered, 'If anyone has two tunics he must share with the man who has none, and the one with something to eat must do the same.' There were tax collectors too who came for baptism, and these said to him, 'Master, what must we do?' He said to them, 'Exact no more than your rate.' Some soldiers asked him in their turn, 'What about us? What must we do?'
He said to them, 'No intimidation! No extortion! Be content with your pay!'

A feeling of expectancy had grown among the people, who were beginning to think that John might be the Christ, so John declared before them all, 'I baptise you with water, but someone is coming, someone who is more powerful than I am, and I am not fit to undo the strap of his sandals; he will baptise you with the Holy Spirit and fire. His winnowing-fan is in his hand to clear his threshing-floor and to gather the wheat into his barn; but the chaff he will burn in a fire that will never go out.' As well as this, there were many other things he said to exhort the people and to announce the Good News to them.
